- Key figures to measure your ecological and social effect
- Reduction of carbon emissions
- Management of resources
- Inclusion of people with disabilities
- Depth of the value-added chain

„ We are glad that in AfB we found a partner who provides us with high-quality service and who at the same time creates social added value by employing people with disabilities.“

Claudia von Bothmer

Head of Corporate Responsibility bei Telefónica in Deutschland

Telefonica

„The environment, society, and both enterprises benefit from the cooperation between Siemens and AfB. We found a reliable, socially committed partner for our discarded IT hardware, whose processes are at an extremely advanced level as far as data integrity is concerned.“
